Ringwood Secondary College acknowledges that school staff owe a Duty of Care to students to take reasonable steps to reduce the risk of reasonably foreseeable harm, which can include harm that may be caused by bullying behaviour.

Scope:

This policy addresses how Ringwood Secondary College aims to prevent, address and respond to student bullying behaviour. Ringwood Secondary College recognises that there are many other types of inappropriate student behaviours that do not meet the definition of bullying which are also unacceptable at our school. These other inappropriate behaviours will be managed in accordance with our Student Engagement and Inclusion policy.

This policy applies to all school activities, including camps and excursions.

Policy:

Definitions - Bullying

In 2018 the Education Council of the Council of Australian Governments endorsed the following definition of bullying for use by all Australian schools:

Bullying is an ongoing and deliberate misuse of power in relationships through repeated verbal, physical and/or social behaviour that intends to cause physical, social and/or psychological harm. It can involve an individual or a group misusing their power, or perceived power, over one or more persons who feel unable to stop it from happening.

Bullying can happen in person or online, via various digital platforms and devices and it can be obvious (overt) or hidden (covert). Bullying behaviour is repeated, or has the potential to be repeated, over time (for example, through sharing of digital records)

Bullying of any form or for any reason can have immediate, medium and long-term effects on those involved, including bystanders. Single incidents and conflict or fights between equals, whether in person or online, are not defined as bullying.

Bullying has three main features:

- it involves a misuse of power in a relationship
- it is ongoing and repeated, and
- it involves behaviours that can cause harm

Bullying can be:

- direct physical bullying – e.g. hitting, tripping, and pushing or damaging property
- direct verbal bullying – e.g. name calling, insults, homophobic or racist remarks, verbal abuse
- indirect bullying – e.g. spreading rumours, playing nasty jokes to embarrass and humiliate, mimicking, encouraging others to socially exclude a person and/or damaging a person's social reputation or social acceptance

Cyberbullying is direct or indirect bullying behaviours using digital technology. For example via a mobile device, computers, chat rooms, email, social media, etc. It can be verbal, written and include images, video and/or audio.

Other distressing and inappropriate behaviours

Many distressing and inappropriate behaviours may not constitute bullying even though they are unpleasant. Students who are involved in or who witness any distressing and inappropriate behaviours should report their concerns to school staff and our school will follow the Student Engagement and Inclusion policy.

Mutual conflict involves an argument or disagreement between people with no imbalance of power. In incidents of mutual conflict, generally, both parties are upset and usually both want a resolution to the issue. Unresolved mutual conflict can develop into bullying if one of the parties targets the other repeatedly in retaliation.

Social rejection or dislike is not bullying unless it involves deliberate and repeated attempts to cause distress, exclude or create dislike by others.

Single-episode acts of nastiness or physical aggression are not the same as bullying. However, single episodes of nastiness or physical aggression are not acceptable behaviours at our school and may have serious consequences for students engaging in this behaviour. Ringwood Secondary College will use its Student Engagement and Inclusion policy to guide a response to single episodes of nastiness or physical aggression.

Harassment is language or actions that are demeaning, offensive or intimidating to a person. It can take many forms, including sexual harassment and disability harassment. Further information about these two forms of harassment, including definitions, are set out in our Student Engagement and Inclusion policy. Harassment of any kind will not be tolerated at Ringwood Secondary College and may have serious consequences for students engaging in this behaviour. Ringwood Secondary College will use its Student Wellbeing and Engagement Policy to guide a response to students demonstrating harassing behaviour, unless the behaviour also constitutes bullying, in which case the behaviour will be managed in accordance with this Bullying Prevention Policy.

Bullying Prevention:

Ringwood Secondary College has a number of programs and strategies in place to build a positive and inclusive school culture. We strive to foster a school culture that prevents bullying behaviour by modelling and encouraging behaviour that demonstrates acceptance, kindness and respect.

Bullying prevention at Ringwood Secondary College is proactive and is supported by research that indicates that a whole school, multifaceted approach is the most effective way to prevent and address bullying. At our school:

- we have a positive school environment that provides safety, security and support for students and promotes positive relationships and wellbeing
- we strive to build strong partnerships between the school, families and the broader community that means all members work together to ensure the safety of students
- teachers are encouraged to incorporate classroom management strategies that promote positive behaviour, co-operation, respect, kindness and to discourage bullying
- a range of year level incursions and programs are planned for each year to raise awareness about bullying and its impacts, including Year 7 Transition Workshops and Year 8 Wellbeing Days
- emotional literacy, kindness and empathy are explicitly taught through the college's wellbeing program, Bounce, as preventative strategies, as well as mindfulness to assist with emotional regulation. The program also aims to promote resilience, assertiveness, conflict resolution and problem solving from Years 7-12. Students are encouraged to look out for each other and to seek help appropriately in dealing with ongoing issues
- students are encouraged to look out for each other and to talk to teachers and older peers about any bullying they have experienced or witnessed
- Year 7 Bounce classes focus on Positive Relationships, utilising the Friendology Program from UR Strong. This program develops language for promoting healthy relationships and explores different types of behaviour
- inclusion strategies to promote respect for diversity and reduce homophobic bullying. These strategies are led by the Stand Out Group, which is a student-led group that tackles homophobia and promotes equality throughout the school. Strategies include: Stand Out Group, Wear it Purple Day events, IDAHOBIT Day Events, various inclusivity training sessions for students and staff
- Ringwood Secondary College is a leading school in the State-wide Respectful Relationships initiative that promotes gender equality and aims to teach students skills in developing respectful relationships within the school, and trains teachers and students on how to support those who are experiencing relationship abuse and/or violence

For further information about our engagement and wellbeing initiatives, please see our Student Engagement and Inclusion policy.

Incident Response:

Reporting concerns to Ringwood Secondary College

Bullying complaints will be taken seriously and responded to sensitively at our school.

Students who may be experiencing bullying behaviour, or students who have witnessed bullying behaviour, are encouraged to report their concerns to school staff as soon as possible.

Our ability to effectively reduce and eliminate bullying behaviour is greatly affected by students and/or parents and carers reporting concerning behaviour as soon as possible, so that the responses implemented by Ringwood Secondary College are timely and appropriate in the circumstances.

We encourage students to speak to their House Coordinators. However, students are welcome to discuss their concerns with any trusted member of staff including teachers and wellbeing staff.

Parents or carers who develop concerns that their child is involved in, or has witnessed bullying behaviour at Ringwood Secondary College should contact their child's House Coordinator, by phone on 9870 2002 or via school email. Alternatively, an email may be directed to the school account at ringwood.sc@edumail.vic.gov.au

Investigations

When notified of alleged bullying behaviour, school staff are required to:

1. record the details of the allegations in Compass and
2. inform relevant staff, which may include House Coordinators, Sub-school leaders, Student Wellbeing Team members, Assistant Principals or the Principal.

The House Coordinator is responsible for investigating allegations of bullying in a timely and sensitive manner. To appropriately investigate an allegation of bullying, the House Coordinator may:

- speak to those involved in the allegations, including the target/s, the students allegedly engaging in bullying behaviour/s and any witnesses to the incidents
- speak to the parents of the students involved
- speak to the teachers of the students involved
- take detailed notes of all discussions for future reference
- obtain written statements from all or any of the above.

All communications with the House Coordinator in the course of investigating an allegation of bullying will be managed sensitively. Investigations will be completed as quickly as possible to allow for the behaviours to be addressed in a timely manner.

The objective of completing a thorough investigation into the circumstances of alleged bullying behaviour is to determine the nature of the conduct and the students involved. A thorough understanding of the alleged bullying will inform staff about how to most effectively implement an appropriate response to that behaviour.

Serious bullying, including serious cyberbullying, is a criminal offence and may be referred to Victoria Police. For more information, see: Brodie's Law.

Responses to bullying behaviours

When the House Coordinator has sufficient information to understand the circumstances of the alleged bullying and the students involved, a number of strategies may be implemented to address the behaviour and support affected students in consultation with the Sub-school leader, the Student Wellbeing Team, teachers, Assistant Principals, Principal and/or Department of Education and Training specialist staff.

There are a number of factors that will be considered when determining the most appropriate response to the behaviour. When making a decision about how to respond to bullying behaviour, Ringwood Secondary College will consider:

- the age and maturity of the students involved
- the severity and frequency of the bullying, and the impact it has had on the target student
- whether the student/s engaging in bullying behaviour have displayed similar behaviour before
- whether the bullying took place in a group or one-to-one context
- whether the students engaging in bullying behaviour demonstrates insight or remorse for their behaviour
- the alleged motive of the behaviour, including any element of provocation.

The House Coordinator may implement all, or some of the following responses to bullying behaviours:

- offer counselling support to the target student or students, including referral to the Student Wellbeing Team, or external providers
- offer counselling support to the students engaging in bullying behaviour, including referral to the Student Wellbeing Team, or external providers
- offer counselling support to affected students, including witnesses and/or friends of the target student, including referral to the Student Wellbeing Team, or external providers
- facilitate a restorative practice meeting with all or some of the students involved. The objective of restorative practice is to repair relationships that have been damaged by bringing about a sense of remorse and restorative action on the part of the person who has bullied someone and forgiveness by the person who has been bullied
- facilitate a mediation between some or all of the students involved to help to encourage students to take responsibility for their behaviour and explore underlying reasons for conflict or grievance. Mediation is only suitable if all students are involved voluntarily and demonstrate a willingness to engage in the mediation process
- facilitate a Student Support Group meeting and/or Behaviour Support Plan for affected students
- prepare a Behaviour Management Plan restricting contact between target and students engaging in bullying behaviour
- provide discussion and/or mentoring for different social and emotional learning competencies of the students involved
- monitor the behaviour of the students involved for an appropriate time and take follow up action if necessary
- implement disciplinary consequences for the students engaging in bullying behaviour, which may include removal of privileges, detention, suspension and/or expulsion consistent with our Student Wellbeing and Engagement policy, the Ministerial Order on Suspensions and Expulsions and any other relevant Department policy

Ringwood Secondary College understands the importance of monitoring and following up on the progress of students who have been involved in or affected by bullying behaviour. Where appropriate, school staff will also endeavour to provide parents and carers with updates on the management of bullying incidents.

The House Coordinator is responsible for maintaining up to date records of the investigation of, and responses to, bullying behaviour.
